Volunteer-built Model Train Room at West Valley City's Harman Senior Recreation Center Set to Open

- WHAT: Model train room at West Valley City Harman Senior Recreation Center grand opening
- WHEN: Thursday, May 3, 2012, 10 a.m.
- WHERE: Harman Senior Recreation Center
4090 South 3600 West
- WHO: Mayor Mike Winder will celebrate the opening of the model train room. The media is invited to attend.
- WHY: The West Valley City Harman Senior Recreation Center will hold a grand opening of a model train room built by volunteers. The scale train room features vignettes of life in the Utah area, including Kennecott Mining, Utah Lake, Pete Harman's first KFC restaurant, a circus, and local ski areas. Mayor Mike Winder will be on hand to participate in the grand opening.

The David and Grace Harman Family Home was the boyhood home of Pete Harman, founder of Kentucky Fried Chicken, which he donated to the City for use as a senior recreation center. The house was originally built in 1918 and remodeled in 1989 before Harman turned it over to the city.

The Harman Senior Recreation Center provides senior residents 60 years old and older with access to community resources and programs that enhance dignity, support independence, encourage community involvement and stimulate physical, mental and emotional well-being.
